REQUIREMENTS

Build a student information system which performs the following functions.

- Store and retrieve students' partial information in the current semester and other basic information including:

  - Student's name
  - Student's ID
  - Registered courses in the current semester

- Is accessed in two modes:

  - Administrator – insert, update and monitor whole process
  - User – view current student's info; cannot perform any changes